To Whom It May Concern,

Today I spoke with Elizabeth, the accounts receivable supervisor, and explained to her that we have received a Notice to Owner and our contractor, Mike Winiarek with LLW Construction Inc., is not responding to our requests for any information regarding this matter. I am writing to formally request a full and detailed statement of my account with your company. Please provide the following information for our records:

1. A complete list of all outstanding charges currently due on the account.
2. A copy of all invoices issued to date.
3. A breakdown of all charges applied to the account, including dates and descriptions.
4. A record of all payments made on the account, including payment dates and methods.

This request is being made to ensure that a lien will not be placed on our home. Kindly include any credits, adjustments, or interest charges if applicable.
