Subject: Demand for Payment of Outstanding Rent

Dear Breanna,

This letter serves as formal notice that you owe a total of $4500 in unpaid rent for the months of May 2025 and June 2025, under the terms of the lease agreement dated January 1st, 2025, for the premises at 811 Gate Run Rd, Jacksonville, FL, 32211. This amount includes $1,200 in late fees, as outlined in Section 6 of the lease agreement, due to consistent late payments throughout the lease term.

Although you have indicated your intent to vacate the property by Monday, June 30, 2025, please be advised that your financial obligations under the lease remain in effect until the end of the lease term or until a formal termination is agreed upon in writing. As of the date of this letter, the outstanding balance remains unpaid.

In accordance with the lease agreement and applicable Florida landlord-tenant laws, I am entitled to recover the full amount due, along with any legal fees incurred in the process of collection.

Demand for Payment:

Unless the full balance of $4,500 is received within 10 business days from the date of this letter, I will initiate legal proceedings to recover the amount owed. This may include filing a claim in a small claims court, reporting the delinquency to the credit bureaus, and/or engaging a licensed collections agency.

Security Deposit and Potential Rent Loss Due to Repairs:

Please note that the $1,625 security deposit carried over from the prior lease term will not be evaluated or applied until possession of the property has been formally transferred back to me. The final disposition of the deposit will be contingent upon full inspection of the premises, including documentation of its condition. I reserve the right to deduct the cost of any repairs from the deposit. Additionally, if the extent of the damage results in a delay in re-renting the property, I may also seek compensation for lost rental income during the repair period, as permitted under Florida landlord-tenant law.

I urge you to treat this matter with urgency. If you have any questions or wish to discuss a resolution, please contact me directly at above listed phone or email. You may make payment to my Zelle account at 719-330-2225 or mail payment to the address listed above or contact me directly to discuss any questions.

Sincerely,
Balaji Badam
